In this writ petition, the petitioner has complained that despite undertaking given before this Court in W.P.No.371 of 2006, which was disposed of on 05.01.2006, the authorities of Ramagundam Municipality, Karimnagar District have not taken action to stop illegal constructions being made on its land and the encroachers are continuing their activity under the protection provided by respondent Nos.2 and 3.

After arguing the case for some time, the learned counsel made a request that his client may be permitted to withdraw the writ petition with liberty to file an application under Order XXXIX Rule-2 A of the Code of Civil Procedure.
